

SWE Photo-Scavenger Hunt

Still missing photo evidence of all the fun you're having at Cal? Fear no more! Document your crazy exploits at SWE's photo-scavenger hunt (in association with ASME and HES) -- which team will be the first to get a picture of a random stranger participating in a human pyramid? An up-close shot of an Ici ice cream cone? (Yummmm) It's a race to get pictures worth more than a thousand words!

Snacks will be provided!
