Tutors needed!

- Interested in tutoring?
- The BioEHS Study Group program is looking for women study group leaders in all engineering fields!
- Study groups include subjects such as Physics, Calculus, Organic Chemistry, and Electrical Engineering, but are open to the interests of study group leaders. Leaders are trained to create their own worksheets, run weekly 90 min. study group sessions, and hold large review sessions for midterms and finals. Additionally, leaders are offered 2 units of P/NP course credit.
- If interested, please contact Bioehs.academic@gmail.com or e-mail Su directly at svora@berkeley.edu.
