

Nuclear Propulsion Officer

- Technical management of Nuclear Reactors aboard Aircraft Carriers and Submarines
- Professional surface and/or subsurface mariner
- 21-29 years old, US Citizen with NO significant criminal background or health issues
- Good to excellent academic record (3.2 GPA is competitive), particularly in Calculus and Physics.

Naval Aviation Officer

- Fly advanced fixed wing or rotary aircraft supporting Carrier Strike Group Operations
- Younger than 27, US Citizen with NO significant criminal background or health issues
- Flying experience preferred but not required
- Good academic record. 3.0 is considered competitive

Surface Warfare Officer

- Navigate guided missile cruisers and destroyers
- Younger than 29, US Citizen with NO significant criminal background or health issues
- Good academic record. 3.0 is considered competitive

Information Dominance Officer

- Ensures that the US Navy has the best available information to make informed, wise decisions.
- 21-42 years age, US Citizen with NO significant criminal background or health issues
- Good academic record. 3.0 is considered competitive
- Degrees in computer science, computer technology, information systems, mathematics, and other related fields required.